Acceptance of Terms & Conditions

I hereby warrant the truth of the above statements and I declare that I have not withheld any information which might lead in any way to increase the risk of insurance or influence the acceptance of this proposal. I agree that this proposal shall be the basis of the contract between me and the insurers and I further agree to be bound by the terms & conditions and the exception of the policy which I have the opportunity to see and read. I further declare that my personal details and my driving record and those of my additional driver(s) do not render me or my additional driver(s) ineligible to hire. The driver(s) agrees there will be no driving other than the named driver(s).

I accept full responsibility and agree to pay on demand for:

- (i) any additional damage whatsoever
- (ii) any policy excess applicable as demand up to £15,000.00
- (iii) any fuel required
- (iv) valeting charge as required

I have read and understand the terms & conditions appearing on the front and reverse hereof. I fully agree to be bound by them. I authorise the lessor to process a credit card voucher for the cost of hire above if applicable.

Termination: The hirer may terminate this agreement at any time by returning the vehicle to the lessor. I acknowledge having received a copy of this agreement. I confirm that this agreement has been completed prior to my signature.

Terms & Conditions

Inspection

I confirm the vehicle has been inspected by me and any damage or defects are accurately recorded on this document. I fully understand a further inspection will be carried out on return and as stated in the terms and conditions. I agree to pay the insurance excess in relation to every damage, theft or third-party claim made against our insurance policy. I also agree to pay in full for any damage considered to be negligent which is not covered by our insurance. I acknowledge during the currency of the hire agreement I shall be eligible for any offence and for all fixed penalty notices under the road traffic offenders act 1991, including any parking/excess parking notices.

1. The hirer acknowledges that the vehicle has been inspected and the hirer accepts the vehicle as being in a good state of repair, not including manufacturers defects which would not have been visible upon inspection.
2. The owner has the right to inspect the vehicle, without prior notice, at all reasonable times during the term of this agreement

Excessive Wear and Tear

The hirer is responsible for ensuring that the Vehicle is regularly maintained and is kept in good repair. Regular maintenance repair includes, but is not limited to, the excessive wear and tear provisions below. The Hirer is to pay the costs of regular maintenance and any costs for repairs not covered by warranty.

Excessive wear and tear will include, but is not limited to, the following, even if covered by the Hirers insurance policy:

- a. Cracked, damaged, or tinted glass;
- b. Dented or damaged body panels, wings, lights, or paint;
- c. Missing equipment or accessories that were provided with the vehicle, including but not limited to, spare tyre or regular tyres;
- d. Tyres with less than 3mm of tread remaining at the lowest point;
- e. Damage to the interior of the vehicle, including but not limited to dash, seats, floor covering, upholstery or;
- f. Mechanical damage that affects the safe, proper or lawful operation of the vehicle, which would include damage that causes the Vehicle to fail a safety inspection in the country where this agreement is signed.

If the vehicle has excess wear and tear, there will be a charge to the Hirer for the excess wear and tear.

During the Term, damaged or lost parts, equipment, or accessories may be replaced with items of equal or better quality and construction, and replacement items that meet this standard will be accepted as original items, upon return of the vehicle.

Event of Default

1. The hirer will be in default under this agreement if:
 - a. The hirer fails to make a monthly payment on the due date;
 - b. A bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding is initiated by the Hirer or against the Hirer;
 - c. A creditor or a government authority seizes the vehicle;
 - d. The Hirer has misrepresented personal or financial information;
 - e. The Hirer is no longer living;
 - f. The Vehicle is stolen or damaged by beyond repair;
 - g. The vehicle is not returned at the end of the Term; or
 - h. The Hirer breaches any other term of this agreement.

In the event that the hirer defaults under this agreement, the Hirer will be required to pay the amounts applicable to the Vehicle during the remainder of the Term.

If the Hirer defaults under this agreement, the Owner will pursue the remedies outlined in this agreement, in addition to any other remedies allowed by law. If the Hirer defaults the Owner may terminate this agreement and may recover the Vehicle and sue the Hirer for damages.

Returning the Vehicle

When the Hirer returns the Vehicle at the end of agreement, the Hirer must pay the following amount:

- a. The cost of repairs needed as a result of excess wear and tear.

The Hirer may return the Vehicle at any time during the agreement term, by paying the following amounts:

- a. The cost of repair needed as a result of excess wear and tear; and
- b. Any outstanding amount for the remaining months left in the agreement term dates.
